Item 12

Conclusions and Next Steps :

Decisions (Jan Levy) Action Plan (Miho Taguma)

The 1st Meeting of the Group of National Experts on the Education of Migrants, Paris , 21-22 January 2008

Conclusions (1)

- The work on Education of Migrants is contributing to broader OECD work on migrants, planned to be fed into the Ministerial Council Meeting of 2009
- The Group agreed on the proposed:
  - Outputs:
    - Country background reports (CBRs)
    - Country notes (CNs)
    - Synthesis report
  - Process and methodology:
    - Review countries prepare CBRs by the end of May 08
    - Two visits per country: Fact-finding and policy mission
    - Secretariat will draft country notes with help of experts
    - Additional country reviews are possible. Countries must notify Secretariat by end of March latest
    - Questionnaire to all other member countries will be considered
    - Synthesis report and dissemination conference

Conclusions (2)

- Outputs (continued):
  - Timeline
    - 2008: Country background, country visits
    - 2009 (spring): Country notes – work on synthesis report
    - 2009 (autumn): Finalising report, dissemination
- The meeting took note of:
  - The OECD/DELSA work on socio-economic impact of the integration of immigrants
  - Other work within OECD/EDU
  - Country experiences from Belgium (FI), New Zealand, England, Spain and Norway
  - Possible cooperation with the European Commission and the Council of Europe
  - China's experiences with internal migration (linguistic and cultural diversity within)

Conclusions (3)

- Agreed that the overarching policy question of the work should be:
“What policies can promote successful education outcomes for first and second generation migrants?”
- Added that the focus should not only be on targeted interventions but also on the overall design of the education systems
- Agreed to form a sub-group of countries on data collection and selection of indicators; the result to be shared among all the members for consultation

Conclusions (4)

- Agreed to focus on 'immigrant students' regardless of whether their language is seen as that of 'minority' or not.
- Agreed that questions concerning access, participation and student performance are the most relevant, and that issues of segregation need to be specifically addressed
- Agreed that the main focus should be on pre-school, primary and secondary education, but discussed whether to include access/transition issues to higher education
