OFFICE CIRCULAR

ADMINISTRATOR (GRADE A3), MACROECONOMIC ANALYSIS AND SYSTEMS MANAGEMENT DIVISION, ECONOMIC DEPARTMENT

Closing date for applications: 2 June 1998

The OECD is an equal opportunity employer and encourages applications from female candidates

Role

Under the supervision of the Head of Division and/or a Principal Administrator, the main responsibility of the post-holder will be to conduct economic analyses of, and draft documents about, policy issues arising in fields covered by the Division.

Main Duties

1. Participate in ongoing work of the Department on a broad range of empirical studies contributing to macro-policy assessments, simulation analyses and development of the OECD INTERLINK world model. Undertake specific econometric analyses and model development work.
2. Assist in the assessment of macro-policy developments and economic prospects for the Department's twice-yearly forecasting Round and the preparation of alternative short and medium-term international macroeconomic projections and scenarios.
3. Draft material for reports on the above subjects to be submitted to the Economic Policy Committee and its subsidiary Working Parties.

4. Prepare related working paper material and technical documentation.

Principal Qualifications and Core Competences

1. Advanced university degree in economics with several years' experience in applied economic analysis, macroeconomic modelling and related empirical studies.
 2. Sound knowledge of macroeconomic theory and proven expertise with macroeconomic models. Familiarity with the economic problems and data sources of a number of Member countries. Experience with international models would be a considerable advantage.
 3. Sound knowledge of, and practical experience with, modern statistical and applied econometric methods. Experience with the estimation, implementation and use of computer-based macroeconomic models for simulation and projection would be a considerable advantage.
 4. Very good knowledge of one of the two official languages of the Organisation (English and French) and good drafting ability in that language; working knowledge of the other.
- N.B. The appointment may initially be made at the level immediately below if the qualifications and professional experience of the selected applicant correspond to that level; in this case, the duties and responsibilities assigned to the post will be adjusted accordingly.

GENERAL INFORMATION ON VACANCIES AND APPLICATIONS

Who may apply: Posts in the Organisation are open to both male and female nationals of Member countries. External candidates must be less than 65 years old at the time of appointment.

Closing date: The date shown is that at which the selection procedures begin officially. Applications received later will be considered only on an exceptional basis.

Duration of appointment: A fixed-term appointment (usually for two or three years, with the possibility of renewal) will be offered.

Grade of appointment: Posts are normally filled at the grade indicated. Some posts, however, may be filled provisionally at the level immediately below if the qualifications and professional experience of the chosen candidate correspond to that level and if such a possibility has been indicated on the vacancy notice. In this case, the duties and responsibilities assigned will be adjusted accordingly.

Place of work: Unless otherwise stated, work will be carried out in Paris. However, for some posts, occasional travel may be required.

Duties: The duties mentioned are the main duties to be carried out at the time of appointment. They may be modified according to the work programme of the Service or with the introduction of new work methods and/or equipment.

Qualifications: The qualifications listed are those which are most important to the performance of the duties mentioned. Their sequence is not an indication of the relative importance attached to them.

Tests: For some posts, candidates may be required to take a written or oral examination. The result will be a factor in the selection.

Interviews: The best-qualified candidates will be called for interview. Candidates who are not native speakers of either of the two official languages will be assessed at interview in the official language of their choice--unless the post in question requires an excellent or very good knowledge of both languages in which case all candidates will be required at interview to demonstrate competency in the two languages.

Final selection: The final selection will be made on the basis of the qualifications, experience and core competences mentioned in the Vacancy Notice and in comparison with those of the other candidates. Unsuccessful candidates will be notified not later than one month after the appointment procedure has been completed.

How to apply: Those who wish to apply for a post should send a detailed Curriculum Vitae (indicating the vacancy reference number) to Human Resource Management, accompanied by supporting documentation, such as titles of publications and/or copies of diplomas, as appropriate. Other than employment history and educational background your CV must include your nationality, sex and birthdate.
