11:55 7.b Perspectives from afar: Reflections and Country Updates
FSC Members

It has often been said that “a nuclear accident anywhere is a nuclear accident everywhere”. With respect to the Fukushima accident and its context of natural catastrophe, what have been the feelings and responses of RW managers and their civil society partners in the FSC countries?

FSC members are urged to consult with their institution so as to be able, if appropriate, to share official positions as well as personal observations.

Linking with our PoW Theme 3 (Media, Internal and External Relations), what have been the images presented by the mass media in FSC countries?

- 12:20 7.c Discussion and way forward
D FSC Chair and members
It is too early at this date to know the lessons that will be learnt from Fukushima. In this discussion period, the Core Group would like to “open the door”, asking FSC members for their early intuitions on which themes or issues might be appropriately explored by our group.

16:15 Break

16:40 9.e “Adapting to Change” as an organizational goal Oral report
Jo-Ann Facella (NWMO)

Responding to stakeholder or societal demand, the Canadian implementer has undertaken “adaptive phasing” as an internal philosophy as well as a nationally-supported RWM approach.

16:55 9.f Discussion of Stepwise DM, anticipating the future, and way forward FSC Glossary
FSC Members v 5.3

D What do these presentations suggest in terms of updating or reorienting our PoW? What follow up should they be given?

The Glossary Handbook includes an entry on Stepwise Decision Making. Any changes? Implications?

17:45 Adjourn

WEDNESDAY 14 SEPTEMBER - DAY 2

9:15 10. MODELS FOR EARLY INVOLVEMENT (Exploratory Discussion under several PoW Themes)

Chair: Jo-Ann Facella (NUMO)

Session Rapporteur: Claire Mays (NEA)

Society needs to encourage institutions to be more open to bringing stakeholders into the discussion at the stage of considering options.

The FSC does not seek to be prescriptive, but to help participants to consider pragmatic alternatives that could facilitate their own practice.

10.a Introduction

Chair

Let us share practical reflections on how countries have achieved early involvement: which reasons and motivations are cited, which methods and opportunities are used?

9:20 10.b Input from Country Update material on this topic Oral report

Rapporteur

Input also from a Regulators’ Forum questionnaire if appropriate.

9:30 10.c Country presentation – Czech Republic Oral report

9:45 10.d Discussion on “Dialogue”, and way forward FSC Glossary
Chair and FSC Members v 5.3

D The Glossary Handbook includes a chapter on “Dialogue”.

Can transfer of knowledge about early involvement be consolidated in an FSC study, report or statement? Does a “best practice” guide exist? Would it interest the FSC to update and complete it with country studies?

10:15 Break

---

10:45 ROLE AND IMAGE OF THE REGULATOR 2003 Report

FSC Chair
Rapporteur : Karine de Beule

11.a Updating the 2003 report of the Regulators’ Forum
Claudio Pescatore (NEA)

Carmen Ruiz-Lopez reviewed FSC proceedings and documents to create this report published in 2003, endorsed by both the FSC and the RF. The latter group has decided to update the publication. The document is accessible at <http://www.oecd-nea.org/rwm/reports/2003/nea4428-regulator-role.pdf>

---

10:55 11.b FSC input to updating the 2003 study from Country Updates Oral report

Rapporteur

11:20 11.c Discussion of way forward FSC Glossary
Chair, NEA Secretariat v 5.3

D The FSC Glossary Handbook includes an entry on Safety as well as addresses the role of regulators in several occasions. Any implications from the discussion of the 2003 report?

FSC members are invited to designate external stakeholders who would be particularly qualified to read the 2003 report (or a new draft update) and give suggestions.

11:50 12. TRANSPARENCY: WHY AND HOW? (Topical discussion under PoW Theme 2)

Chair: Jay Redgrove
Session Rapporteur: Meritxell Martell

---
