ACCESSION OF MEXICO TO THE OECD

The Council of the OECD invited Mexico, on 14 April 1994, to accede to the Convention of the Organisation to become its 25th Member. Following this invitation and after completing the legal internal procedures required by its Constitution, the Government of Mexico deposited its instrument of accession to the Convention on the OECD with the French Government on 18 May 1994. In accordance with article 16 of the OECD Convention, Mexico's accession takes effect on the same date. Mexico is therefore now officially a Member of the Organisation. On the same day, Mexico deposited at the OECD its instrument of ratification of the Agreement on the privileges and immunities of the Organisation in Mexico.
